To have love is important, it's how we show others we care. To live with love in your heart is one of the best feelings in the world.
Who do you love?
Love is in ourselves. In our minds, our hearts and in our world.

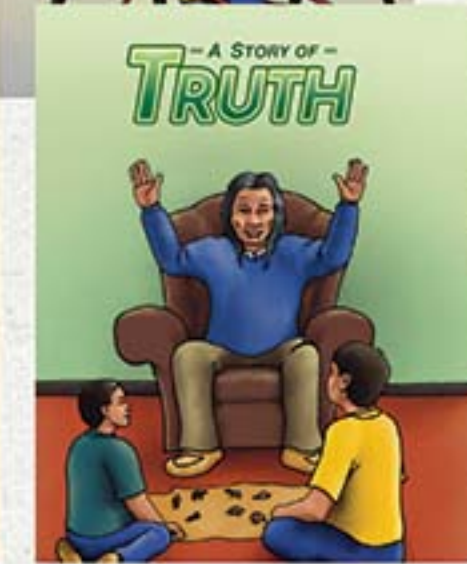

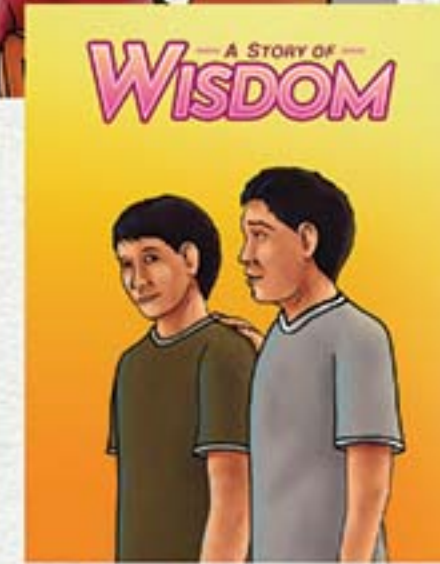

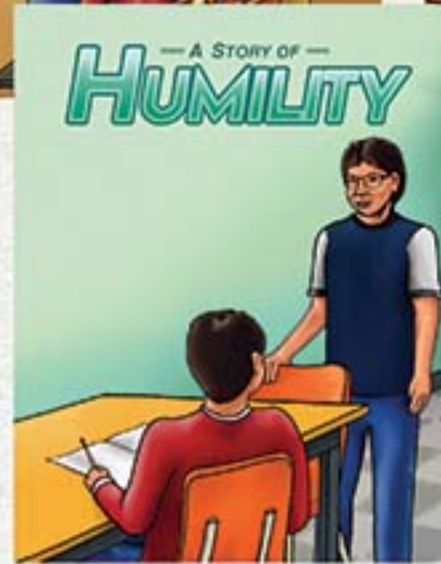

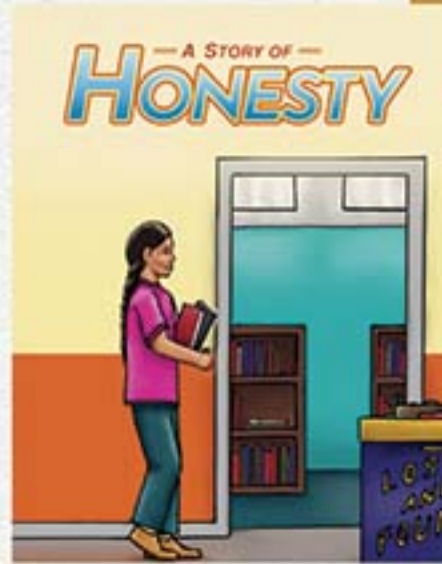

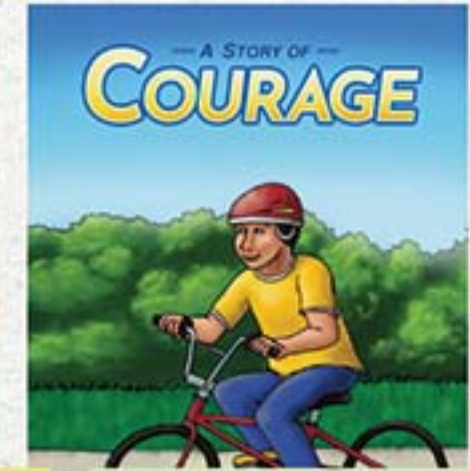

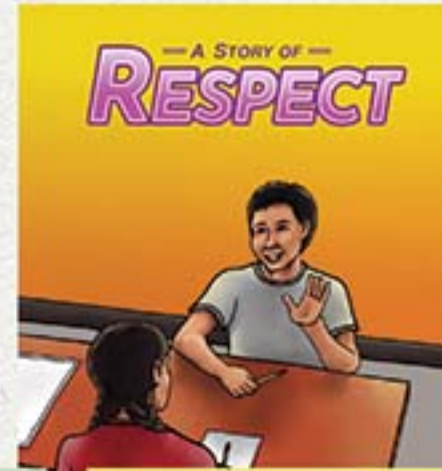

What makes you feel loved?
by family, friends, etc?
What made you feel the most loved this week? It could be something at home, at school or even in your community.
Self-Love is important. To love ourselves is to take care of ourselves and love who we are!
Think of some examples of self-love. What do you love about YOU?
How do you show the people that you love that you love them?
Is there anything special or unique that you do to show your love?
I show my love by:
