LOVE
The Eagle

Love is a powerful emotion or feeling of affection for another person, place or thing.

The Eagle carries the gift of love because of its unique relationship with the Creator. Only the Eagle has the ability and strength to fly higher than any other animal, therefore placing it closer to the Creator than all others.

Eagles are loving parents and teachers to their offspring, protecting and guiding them.

The Eagle feather represents the Creator's love for us and our need for greater understanding of ourselves and each other.

Native people hold the Eagle feather close to their heart and consider receiving an Eagle feather to be the greatest gift.

RESPECT
The Bison

Respect is the special esteem or consideration to which one holds another person, place or thing.

The Bison carries the gift of respect because for so long as bison have been on Turtle Island, we have shared the land with them. They are a source of clothing, food, shelter, and inspiration. We respect the Bison for its strength and courage, and we respect the Bison for its role in the ecosystem. We respect the Bison for its strength and courage, and we respect the Bison for its role in the ecosystem.

The Bison is a symbol of strength and courage.

THE SEVEN TEACHINGS

Love

Love must be unconditional.

The Eagle represents the essence of an original relationship with the Creator. Only the Eagle has the ability and strength to fly higher than any other animal, soaring above it closer to the Creator than all others.

Eagles are brave, powerful and fearless in their offering, protecting and guarding their. An Eagle's fearless represents the Creator's love for us and our need for strength.

Native people hold the Eagle feather close to their heart and consider receiving an Eagle feather to be the greatest gift.

THE SEVEN TEACHINGS

Respect

Respect is the condition of being human.

The Buffalo represents respect because for as long as we have been here, we have nurtured our lives through the fruits of planting, food, shelter, and sustaining ourselves to life.

With abundant patience provided us the time for nurturing, and used every part of the animal - bones for tools and weapons, hides for tents and skins, tend for food, because we are grateful for every part of the animal, honor the eagle and respect the eagle and respect the eagle.

The Buffalo is a gift of life given to the Creator to live harmoniously with a sense of respect.

Native people have seen the Eagle, respect for their education, with the removal of Native traditions, there is a connection and relationship of the Buffalo that is more and more today.

Courage

Courage is the ability to face danger, fear or change with confidence and bravery.

The Bear represents courage because of its strength and natural ability to overcome challenges. A common bear, for example, will stand against a much larger, stronger bear or other animal to protect her cubs.

Just as the bear hibernates during the winter and awakens each spring, we have faced great challenges. The bear shows us how to live a balanced life, where there is a time to be playful and a time to be serious and responsible.

Native people believe that the bear calls them to embrace their personal, social, and spiritual and to stand up for what they believe in.

THE SEVEN TEACHINGS

Honesty

Honesty is speaking and acting truthfully, and clearly releasing worldly spirits.

The Wolf represents honesty because it is closer to the Creator than to humans.

It is believed that the wolf used to walk around humans to protect us of the Creator's will, for us to receive love in our natural form.

Advice with us being true to our spirit and something who we are and guide us to being honest.

Native people believe in the essence of the wolf and honor it with respect and respect.

THE SEVEN TEACHINGS

Humility

Humility is being modest, not arrogant.

The Wolf represents humility because of its quiet nature and ability to protect and guard for the good of the Wolf family with the wisdom of the pack.

Wolves care for the pack and are generous and loving parents, and we should care for what our wolf family and their families should be.

Native people have great respect for the Wolf because of its role for family and its protective nature.

THE SEVEN TEACHINGS

Wisdom

Wisdom is the ability to make decisions based on personal knowledge and experience.

The Beaver represents wisdom because it utilizes its gifts in ways that provide wisdom for itself and its family.

Wisdom also means knowing what your limits are with respect to your body and the life around you.

The Creator gave the Beaver high intelligence and the knowledge of how to build. The Beaver makes the Beaver to produce respect, to understand and create a more harmonious world.

Native people understand that the Beaver is intelligent, productive, and very much a family animal.

THE SEVEN TEACHINGS

Truth

Truth is to speak and understand all the Seven Teachings given to us by the Creator and to practice (practice) to live the Creator's love for us and our need for strength.

The Turtle is graceful, intelligent, peaceful, and ensures the Creator's love for us and our need for strength.

There are 20-year-old turtles representing the 20 days of the year and the 20-year-old turtles representing the 20 days of the year.

There are also 12-year-old turtles representing the 12 months of the year and the 12 months of the year.

Native people believe that the Turtle is intelligent, productive, and very much a family animal.
